Re: 19-cv-00113-PAE – Flatt v. Doe – Agreed Request for Two-Week Extension of Time to File an Amended Complaint or Dismiss Case Without Prejudice

Dear Judge Engelmayer,

We write to respectfully request a two-week extension of time to file an amended complaint.¹ On June 4, 2019, the Court denied a joint motion for a stay and set July 18, 2019 as the deadline to file an amended complaint. Dkt. 17. The Court noted, however, that it was willing to entertain a request for a brief additional extension if the parties believed it was necessary to further facilitate settlement discussions. Id. Settlement discussions have been productive; the parties are currently considering a potential agreement that will resolve this case. The parties believe that a two-week extension (a deadline of August 1, 2019) to settle this case, file an amended complaint, or dismiss this lawsuit without prejudice will help bring this litigation to a close.

We appreciate the Court's attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

/s/ Justin V. Shur
